London International Financial Futures and Options Exchange (LIFFE) Robusta coffee futures: closed lower across the board on Thursday. September position closed at $1,885 per tonne losing US$ 45, while November position closed at $1,900 per tonne losing US$ 43 over the previous closing.

Inter Continental exchange (ICE) Arabica coffee futures Closed lower across the board on Thursday. September position closed at US cents 196.40 per lb losing US cents 4.05, while December closed at US$ 199.10 per lb losing US cents 4.25 over the previous closing.

Coffee prices were lower on speculation that the expected frost set to descend on Brazil will be less intense than originally feared, which diminishes the chances of further damage to Brazil's coffee crops. Paragon Global Markets on Wednesday said the cold front that is expected to move into the main coffee region of Brazil on Thursday night and Friday would be preceded by cloud cover, which could keep temperatures from falling below freezing and reduce the risk of frost developing.
